1. Any person bidding at the sale may be required by the officer conducting the sale to state whether he is bidding on his own behalf or as an agent, and in the letter case, to produce a written authority duly signed by the principal.

2. The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser, but the officer conducting the sale can reject any bidder or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reason to the intending purchasers.

3. Immediately after the article is knocked down to him, the successful bidder shall sign his name opposite the number and specification to the article bought by him in a list provided for the purpose.

Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought such article.

4. After conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay the full amount in cash to the officer conducting the sale and obtain from him a receipt for having paid the amount. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to resell the article purchased by such defaulter, who shall be required to make good any loss but shall not participate in any profit from such resale.

5. In cases of resales for defaulter of payment of value where no bidders are forthcoming, it will be open to the Farm Manager, to fix such price as may appear to him to be reasonable and the proceed for the recovery from the defaulter of the balance, if any, after deducting the price so fixed from the original sale amount.

The articles should be immediately removed by the bidder, after the close of the auction.

C. ELLAPPA CHETTY,
Assistant Director.
